Tax Deduction Limit on Earned Incomes Is Raised to $20,000

BACHELORS AND HUSBANDS WILL ENJOY SAVINGS ON INCOME TAX BY REDUCTION

Washington, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The limit on which the 25 per cent deduction for earned income may be made by taxpayers was raised today by the house ways and means committee from incomes of $10,000 to incomes of $20,000.

The committee which is framing a new tax bill rejected proposals to repeal the capital stock tax and modify the corporation levy of 12 1/2 per cent.

Suggestions that more corporations be allowed to file as partners and that partners in some instances be allowed to file returns as corporations were turned over to a subcommittee.

More than $200,000,000 of the annual burden of 7,000,000 federal income tax payers would be removed by income tax revisions voted by the house ways and means committee in preparing a new revenue bill.

The committee yesterday voted a reduction in the maximum surtax rate from 40 to 20 per cent, pared down the normal rates and increased the personal exemptions.

By increasing the exemptions from $1,000 to $1,500 for single persons and from $2,500 to $3,500 for married persons, the committee relieved more than 1,000,000 persons in the small income class from the necessity of paying any tax as well as reducing the burden of all others on the federal tax rolls.

While no votes of the committee on any of the changes were announced by Chairman Green, it is understood, party lines disappeared and comparative harmony prevailed throughout consideration of the income schedules, considered as the heart of the revenue law, with a similar record in respect to disposing of other features of the bill.

In absorbing more than $200,000,000 or the $300,000,000 surplus available for tax reduction on the income tax reductions the committee is believed to have shut the door to any recommendation for repeal of the estate or inheritance tax, which would mean a loss of more than $100,000,000 annually.

Reduction of the inheritance rate, however, probably from 40 to 20 per cent is still under consideration.

J. P. King, banker and land owner, says cotton prices would soon get back to 20 cents a pound or even higher, if the farmers of the South would hold the crop off the market two weeks. He called attention to the fact that the cotton market is in a state of confusion, and that the price of cotton is largely in the hands of the cotton producers themselves. Mr. King declares, and a slowing up of selling would strengthen the market.

The first car load of piping to be used in the distribution of gas in Vernon by the Urban Light and Power Co. is expected to arrive in Vernon early Friday morning, and is to be unloaded Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, according to George A. Long, who has contracted to unload the piping. Four-inch pipe has been sent here for the city distributing lines.

Unloading was started at Childress, Thursday on a carload of sixteen-inch pipe which will be used for laying the mains from city to city.

Robbers Get $3,000

Wild Rumors Are Circulated About Alleged Epidemic

Wild rumors have been circulated about the alleged epidemic at Vernon, called hoof and mouth disease, black tongue, diphtheria and other names. The rumor is entirely without foundation, physicians state. From towns near Vernon come anxious inquiries about the health of loved ones, in the alleged plague stricken town, with the result that many are afraid to even come visiting for fear they will fall victim to the alleged scourge.

Visitors from Moran, came to see if the town was quarantined. A Childress woman wrote her daughter to inquire about the health of the family, saying they heard everybody in Vernon had the hoof and mouth disease. Odell people telephoned and were assured that sixty head of cattle had not been killed and four men had not died the night before.

Crowell visitors were stopped and told to turn back, last week because of the alleged strange disease that was raging. Reports coming from other communities became so alarming that to quiet fears, officials of the health department were summoned and with local physicians went over the situation thoroughly and reported no epidemic of any kind. A few cases of tonsillitis, and sore throat, have been reported.

PASSENGER STEAMER SPRINGS LEAK FRIDAY

New York, Nov. 6, (A-P)—A tug has been ordered to the assistance of the passenger steamer City of Rome, reported by wireless to have sprung a leak while off the Delaware breakwater.

The report from the captain to the Savannah line said the leak was slight. The steamer, bound from Savannah to Boston, had on board about 15 cabin passengers.

The tug will aid in pumping water from the ship's hold. The line's officials expected the City of Rome then would be able to continue to Boston under its own power.

It was explained that temporary repairs had been made to the steamship after its collision on the night of September 26 with the submarine S-51 in which 33 members of the submarine crew lost their lives.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE HEARS GRANT'S REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 6, (A-P)—A report of the congressional investigation of enforcement of the Volstead Law was given in an address prepared for delivery before the Anti Saloon League in the country. Representative Grant M. Hudson of Ohio, chairman of the congressional committee.

"It is very doubtful if any brewer in the United States today can successfully operate a so-called near beer business," Representative Hudson said, "unless they run it in connection with some other business or violate the law."

The control of the genuine whiskey supply in the country, Representative Hudson said, is quite effective.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR SLAIN PROHIBITION AGENTS

Chicago, Nov. 6, (A-P)—A challenge to American youth to enlist for service in defense of the constitution with plenty of action and danger assured, was issued today by the Reverend M. P. Boynton, of Chicago, in a memorial service at the Anti-Saloon League Convention for the nearly fifty prohibition officers killed in action.

"We have now the full equivalent of war," he said, "with greater hardships for the prohibition soldier than the men had at the front in the world war."

Return From Dallas.

VERNON AWAITS RESULT LEAGUE MEET SATURDAY

Lions and Coyotes Are Eliminated From Championship Contest—Electra's Eligibility Will Be Ruled on Saturday—May Play Plainview.

The Vernon Lions may play Plainview on Nov. 11, according to a ruling of Roy B. Henderson, secretary of the interscholastic league of the University of Texas, Superintendent W. T. Lofland announced Friday morning upon his return from a meeting of the executive council of the league at Austin. In a telephone conversation with Mr. Lofland this morning, Plainview officials indicated that they did not wish to play Vernon now, but would await further action of the league officials at Austin.

What steps will be taken to decide the champions of this end of district one will be decided upon Saturday after the league hears the projects of Wichita Falls against the eligibility of certain Electra players, Mr. Lofland states. As matters stand at present, Electra heads the teams in this end of the district, having won two games by a forfeit, one from Vernon and one from Wichita Falls. Wichita Falls is accredited with one victory by forfeit from Vernon.

There is still considerable room for predictions as to what will be the outcome of the championship struggle in this end of the district. Should it be proved that Electra has used ineligible men in the games with Wichita Falls and Vernon this season, the Wichita Falls coach, Bud McCallum, will contend that his team deserves the right to play Plainview for the championship of the district on the grounds that the Coyotes have won one game by forfeit from Vernon, and by virtue of that victory stand ahead of the teams in this section of the district, the local superintendent states. Mr. Lofland's belief is that Henderson will have the teams play the series over again, disregarding the contents of the Wichita Falls coach. This is merely a matter of conjecture, however.

RAIN DAMAGES COTTON CROP

More than half an inch of rain falls in Vernon.

Beginning with a light sprinkle about 7:30 Thursday evening, rain fell in Vernon and vicinity intermittently throughout Thursday night and the early part of Friday morning. The precipitation totaled half an inch at noon Friday.

Reports from various parts of the county indicate that the rainfall was general in this section.

This rain damaged crops considerably in this county, in the opinion of P. D. Chaney, county agent. Fields all over the county are white with open cotton, and the rain will destroy a great deal of it. Rain at this time of the year is particularly destructive because what is called the "second crop" has opened, and this cotton falls from the bolls easily, according to the county agent.

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE GOES ON TRIAL FRIDAY

E. M. Sanderson went on trial on a charge of embezzlement Friday morning in the Forty-Sixth District court. Leon H. Brown, state witness, was called to the witness stand first, and was still on the stand at 1:30.

The jury was impaneled as follows: H. L. Westerman, R. L. Stallings, R. E. Lee, G. L. Ham, C. H. Price, S. E. Smith, W. M. Bristo, J. V. Roberts, A. H. Newsome, Porter Stinnett, Robert Ferrell, A. S. Ross.

Noted Indian Fighter Who Fought With Buffalo Bill Is In Vernon Visiting Daughter, Mrs. Halford

Daniel Magness, Indian fighter and Civil War veteran, who has the distinction of having fought with Buffalo Bill against Sitting Bull on the banks of the historical Powder River, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lillian Halford of this city. The aged Indian fighter, who is now 80 years old, is living near Farwell, where he became an extensive land owner.

During the latter days of August, 1865, Mr. Magness went with Colonel Cole and a regiment of 1500 men into what was then unknown territory along Powder River. The company was attacked intermittently by Sitting Bull's band of Indians and a number were killed. Mr. Magness and six other men became detached from the main body of troops in chasing a group of attacking Indians, and became involved in a heated engagement by themselves. It was at this time that Mr. Magness saw the famous Indian chief mounted on his magnificent roan stallion. Mr. Magness says that he could easily have killed the Indian had he not been so awe-stricken.

Before the small detachment of men reached the main body of troops, Mr. Magness became separated from his companions and was attacked by eight Indians. Buffalo Bill came to his rescue. As soon as the Indians had been driven off, Buffalo Bill departed. Mr. Magness states, and the two did not meet again until in Waco during Buffalo Bill's tour with his show.

Mr. Magness entered the Union army during the Civil War, enlisting in May, 1864. He engaged in very little fighting, however, before the war was over. As soon as the war ended he was sent west.

Mr. Magness owns a farm north of Vernon and was for several years a resident of this county, having left here in 1917.

Star Player and Patient

Here we have Max Carey, star outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates, playing two roles, that of sturdy athlete and a very sick young man. Shortly after the close of the series Carey, the outstanding star, was taken to the hospital. Pneumonia, brought on by a collision with Manager Harris of Washington in the fifth game, is the trouble. He's doing as well as expected, as they say in the hospital.

VERNON GETS MACHINE SHOP

Everett-Jones Machine Company Will Erect New Institution.

A large oil well machine shop is to be located a mile and a half south of Vernon on the pavement by Everett-Jones Co., of Ardmore, Okla., according to negotiations which were completed here Friday morning. A building site consisting of two and a half acres on the M. G. Neathery farm has been purchased and construction of the plant will start within a few days, according to the agreement.

The building for the local plant will be 40 by 110 feet, and will be constructed of sheet iron. The plant will manufacture and repair oil well tools of all sorts, the firm states. Modern equipment will be installed. About fifteen employees will be required to operate the plant when it opens.

Everett-Jones Co. operates a number of machine shops in the various oil fields of Oklahoma, having plants located at Ardmore, Healdton, Dillard, and Graham. C. H. Everett and S. W. Jones, principals in the firm, are well known operators in the Sooner state, having been in the oil field machinery business for twelve years. Both men were in Vernon Thursday and Friday closing negotiations. They expressed themselves as pleased with the outlook in the local field.

ALLEGED HIGHWAYMAN HELD BY OFFICERS

Sheriff W. Frank Edmondson is holding a man in connection with an attempted hi-jacking at Harold late Wednesday night. It is alleged that the man attempted to halt a number of young people in an automobile by waving a pistol. The young people hurried to Harold and reported the incident and Deputy Sheriff W. A. Gillispie arrested the man near the scene of the attempted robbery a few minutes later.

He was carrying a large revolver when captured, but claimed to be hunting in spite of the late hour. He had an old Ford automobile and said he was traveling.

EMPEROR OF FRENCH PROTECTORATE, DIES

ANOTHER NEGRO IS PERHAPS FATALLY BURNED IN FIRE ON BEN BYAR'S FARM FRIDAY

A negro cotton picker by the name of White was burned to death at an early hour Friday morning, in a shack on the Ben Byars' farm, seven miles southeast of Vernon. Albert Andrews, another negro, is in a hospital here fatally burned. A third was burned about the hands in an attempt to rescue his companions.

According to the least injured one of the trio, White went to sleep with a lighted cigarette in his mouth. They were sleeping on quilts spread over loose straw, which became ignited. Mr. Byars was awakened by the cry for help from the trapped negroes.

By the time he reached the scene the shack had become a funeral pyre. With the assistance of other men, Andrews was dragged from the flames. The three came here from Fort Worth, for the cotton picking season.

LYCEUM COURSE OPENS TUESDAY

LOWELL PATTON AND HIS ARTISTS WILL APPEAR IN OPENING PROGRAM.

Vernon is looking forward to the program to be given by Lowell Patton and his artists here Tuesday evening at the High School auditorium. Their Futuristic Musical program is said to be a brilliant, lively, wholesome innovation, something entirely new, unique and original, according to reports.

The splendid personalities of the brothers, Lowell and Gault, with Ludovic Hnot, make the program one of the clean, delightful kind that wins the hearty applause of every audience, press accounts of the program state. Lowell Patton has had success in his home city of Portland, Oregon; and in addition has had considerable experience traveling with the Flying Squadron as pianist, and as an accompanist to Frances Soule, harpist, on tour with Frances Ingram, the opera star.

The voices of all three of the artists who will appear here have been highly praised, as have their additional talents which permit them to do justice to the difficult numbers which they present. There are six episodes, sandwiched between a musical prologue and an epilogue. Costumes of Russia, old-fashioned garments, religious robes, oriental gowns, patriotic and popular modern types are brought into the program in a fascinating succession of acts, announcements state.

Six Members of One Family Burn To Death in Fire

Balston Spa, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Six members of one family were burned to death by fire which destroyed a bungalow early today. The sole orphaned survivor, is in a critical condition.

The dead: George Kemp, 10 years old; Mrs. George Kemp; Viola Allen, 14; Myrtle Allen, 9; Coral Allen, 10; Marcina Kemp, 11.

The Allen were children of Mrs. Kemp by a second marriage.

The Kems' four marriages were born in Kemp's house. Mrs. Kemp, 30, sole survivor of the fire, escaped through a window, and heard a sister crying for help.

She surrounded neighbors, but they and the fireman found the bungalow a furnace. The nearest hydrant was a quarter of a mile away. When the flames died down the bodies were found huddled in one room from the position of the bodies, a doctor judged Kemp had found a way of escape and had turned back to find the rest of his family when flames closed their way out.

FERGUSON DECLINES TO COMMENT ON MOODY SUIT

Austin, Nov. 6, (A-P)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson today declined to comment on the suit filed Thursday by Attorney General Dan Moody in which cancellation of all highway maintenance contracts with the American Road Company is sought. "I've nothing to say now," said the former governor.

Attorney General Moody is preparing additional petitions soon to be filed for the cancellation of highway maintenance contracts.

Frank V. Lanham, chairman of the highway commission, was in conference for an hour with the attorney general today. Lanham, also, talked to Mr. Ferguson.

Moody had indicated that he will file suit seeking cancellation of maintenance contracts in 33 counties, which he demanded the highway commission to cancel. The commission has cancelled five of these contracts.

The attorney general will request in early hearing on the suit against the American Road Company, he said.

INCLEMENT WEATHER DELAYS COTTON PICKING

The continued damp cloudy weather, Thursday night and Friday morning, is hampering unpicked cotton, it is the consensus of opinion of farmers from all over the county.

The sharp freeze about ten days ago caused the well matured bolls to open rapidly and the few clear days that followed aided somewhat in the opening. Small bolls will likely rot on the stalk, according to those who make a study of the plant. Picking has been seriously retarded by the heavy fogs and mists last week. It is impossible to estimate how much of the crop has been picked as the fields seem to be full of unpicked cotton.

Mr. Watts Is Witness.

FIND BODY SON OF KING TUT

EXCAVATORS OF KING TUT'S TOMB BELIEVE THEY HAVE INNER COFFIN.

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Excavators of King Tut-Ankh-Amen's 3,000 year old tomb have discovered what they believe to be definite proof that the body of the youthful Pharaoh is actually in the sarcophagus whose splendors have aroused the admiration of Egyptologists.

Their find consists of the inner coffin, shaped to fit the form of the body. About this is a linen shroud, adhering to and covering all the coffin except the face, on which are the painted features customarily depicted on such encasements. The features are believed to represent those of Tut-Ankh-Amen himself. A string of beads and flowers were around the head of the sleeping monarch and on his chest.

Since the finding of the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen and the discovery in it of so many beautiful works of art, there has been great expectation as to what would be found in the sarcophagus when it was fully opened.

WEALTHY ITALIAN HAS NEW SCHEME TO PAY WAR DEBT

Detroit, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Gaetano Napolitano, operating a chain of drug stores here, has proposed that Italians in America "chip in" and pay the Italian war debt to the United States. He believes those who benefited by the war and not those who suffered should pay the obligation.

In a letter on his business stationery he said: "Come in, Italians, let us show Americans what we can do."

RAINS HINDER RAIL TRAFFIC

FOUR TEXAS RIVERS APPROACH FLOOD STAGE FRIDAY MORNING.

New Orleans, Nov. 6. (A-P)—Cotton growers, shippers, the traveling public and business men generally were "taking stock" over a wide area of the Central Southwest today after a series of disastrous rains that destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars in cotton, all but part of the railroad operation and washed out dozens of rail and highway bridges.

Eastern and Southern Texas and Southern Arkansas and portions of Oklahoma and most of North Louisiana, visited early yesterday by heavy rains that in places reached cloudburst intensity, were endeavoring to restore crippled transportation and communication facilities and preparing to salvage what can be saved of the late cotton crop standing in the fields.

Northern Louisiana reported severe damage, loss to cotton in the Monroe trade territory were estimated to run as high as $200,000; the Monroe-Ruston automobile highway was closed and southward to Alexandria and even beyond came reports of crops destroyed, bridges swept away and railroad tracks washed out.

All available repair crews of the Rock Island railroad between Ruston and Alexandria were put to work on the right of way between those points, while the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific and the Louisiana and Arkansas and Louisiana and Northwestern railroads reported track and bridge washouts.

Houston, Nov. 6. (A-P)—As an aftermath of the heaviest rains in years, four Texas rivers were near flood stage today, with overflows along their lower courses predicted by the United States weather bureau. No great damage is expected, but the East Texas rivers are at a higher stage than during the near floods of a month ago, and considerable areas of lowlands are due to be inundated.

The Trinity river will be near flood stage at Riverside in the next 24 to 36 hours, and will go out of its banks at Liberty and below. The Neches is at flood stage at Rockland, and the Sabine is scheduled to overflow at Logansport.

The Little river, a tributary of the Brazos, also will be at flood stage in the next few hours, according to the official prediction.

ATTEMPT MADE TO SLAY NEGRO IN COURTROOM

Deputy Sheriff Pushes Woman's Pistol Toward Floor as Gun Clicks Following Reading of Jury's Verdict Assessing Penalty of Five Years in Pen.

Dallas, Nov. 6.—(AP)—An attempt to shoot Jim Kimbro, negro, was made by a woman spectator, in the courtroom here late yesterday immediately after the jury's verdict was read assessing him a five year term in the penitentiary for the slaying of J. P. Robinson. Deputy Sheriff O. S. Hines, seated near the negro, pushed the pistol toward the floor as the woman attempted to place it against the negro's body. As he did so the gun clicked and the sharp hammer of the pistol pierced the fleshy part of his arm.

The courtroom had been guarded during the trial and persons entering were searched for firearms.

Judge Felix D. Robertson, before whom the case was heard, first shouted a warning that the woman was pointing the gun toward the negro. When her attempt was thwarted, she began tearing at Kimbro's clothing.

Kimbro was tried for the shooting of Robinson on a farm near Dallas and convicted of manslaughter. He testified he shot in self defense.

The fact that the protest of Wichita Falls against the eligibility of Captain Herbert Robinson of Vernon high school football team was sustained is cause for regret in that it has had the effect of robbing the local team of hard-earned victories thus far. But it should not be made the occasion of criticism of either Robinson or the local school officials. Robinson and the school authorities believed he was eligible under the rules of the Interscholastic League but in order to be certain his case was put up to the League officials and a ruling sought. No ruling came and it was assumed that he was eligible.

That Wichita Falls and Electra have both played ineligible men remedies the situation only slightly. It seems, however, that Coach McCallum of Wichita Falls could have protested Robinson before the Wichita-Vernon game, because he knew then as much as ever learned about Robinson's eligibility. The sportsmanlike thing to do is protest before a game. Vernon did this last year in the case of Vaughn of Amarillo, who was later held ineligible, but the Amarillo authorities were given notice of protest in time to send in a substitute if they wished.

There has been altogether too much effort on the part of some of those connected with Wichita and Electra athletic activities to win their games in the committee room rather than on the gridiron. The Record does not say that Vernon should play ineligible men. Both Coach McCallum and Superintendent Dinmore have known for weeks that Robinson was a member of the Vernon team. They have known that Ted Key, against whom a protest was filed, was a member of the team. Dinmore also knew that Curran was on the Wichita team weeks before he protested his eligibility.

If they really wanted to play the game fairly and had been prompted by a sincere desire to promote the interests of clean athletics, it seems that they could have had all question of eligibility determined before the conference games were played.

The ruling in the case of Robinson establishes a new precedent. Last year Vaughn of Amarillo was ruled ineligible on exactly the same point, but the League officials did not forfeit games in which he had played, contenting themselves with instructions to Amarillo not to play him again. Just why it was decided to visit upon Vernon the extreme penalty is not clear.

The decision, however, should be helpful in guiding future athletic activities. Vernon, Electra and Wichita Falls school authorities should get together before the conference season opens next year and settle the question as to eligibility. It is unfair to the players, and what is worse, it breaks public confidence in high school athletics and athletic officials generally to allow men to be declared ineligible after the season is practically finished when a little good sportsmanship and fair play all around would settle all questions before the season opens.

WE'VE HEARD IT BEFORE

The head of the Democratic National Committee is optimistic following the elections of last Tuesday when Democrats were successful in many important municipal and state contests, with Governor Al Smith of New York adding fresh prestige to his leadership in that state. The Committee chairman foresees a Democratic Congress in 1926 and a Democratic President in 1928.

All of this sounds comforting to devoted followers of Thomas Jefferson, but we have heard it before. It seems to be an easy matter to get people to elect Democrats to Congress, Democratic governors, Senators and mayors. But somehow, it seems to be exceedingly difficult matter to get a Democrat in the White House. A split in the Republican party elected Woodrow Wilson in 1912 and the plea that he kept us out of war elected him in 1916.

From the eight years under President Wilson, the Democrats had few men in the White House. There seems to be a lack of interest over the country in the national politics of the Democracy. The disinclination to Democrat could hardly be any other basis. There were men in the Democratic ranks in Indiana, Illinois, New York and as doubtful states in the legislatures and in the courts frequently, in the past, would probably result in their frequent return.

There Was an Old Lady Who Lived in a Shoe

do Republicans when it comes to a matter of local and state officers.

It is only when it comes to the election of a President that the Democrats seem hopelessly in the minority. It must be lack of confidence in the major national politics of the party. Candor compels the admission that in this respect the Democrats have been uncertain in their party declarations. Their candidates have not always been above the suspicion of being controlled by special groups regarded as being antagonistic to what we call business. The American people are not radicals. They believe in sane regulation of business. They take little stock in the frenzied trust-busting idea, popular twenty years ago. But the trouble seems to be that our national party leaders are blind to the plain facts of our recent elections. The more radical the Democratic nominee the greater is the Republican majority. Our last two Democratic Presidents were not classed as extreme progressives. In fact, Grover Cleveland was reviled by many members of his own party because of his supposed reactionary leanings.

And yet we Democrats every four years try to pick a candidate and write a platform that will appeal to as many of the discontented elements as possible. While the Republicans select a conservative, throw the extreme progressive and radical out of their party and then get their candidate by a few million votes. Still our Democratic leaders seem to think the way to win is to placate the radicals as much as possible.

These are just a few reasons why the brass-collared boys down here in Texas will not make their plans to get post offices simply because the chairman of the Democratic National Committee says we'll win in 1928.

Rub them with cloud wisps, islanded with blue;
Dry them in breezes which take lacy toll
Of soft-surfaced seas and pine trees on a knoll,
Of mignonette and rosemary—and rue.

I dare not let the blur of tears remain,
Nor dullness of the toil-filled round of days;
I wipe all free of pride's deceiving glare,
And quickly wash off anger's blinding stain.
For only then I realize again
The healing glory of God's mystic ways.

It Took a Hundred Million Dollars

to make possible Studebaker's One-Profit policy which brings this impressive Unit-Built Coach to you
—“No-Yearly-Models” stabilizes this value

YEARS ago, Studebaker started to work to a certain goal... the manufacture of a quality car under the One-Profit—Unit-Built plan that won the world to Ford in the low-price field.

To gain it, we plowed the earnings of years back into our business. We used more than half of all earnings developing plants and machinery that stand out as world models. As a result, we have one hundred million dollars in net assets concentrated on the production of One-Profit Studebakers.

Because Studebaker builds vital parts and bodies for Studebaker cars—it is possible to give purchasers three advantages:

1. One-Profit Value, because Studebaker eliminates extra profits which all other manufacturers (except Ford) must pay to outside parts or body makers. Thus Studebaker is able to use steel of extra toughness, fine northern white ash and hard maple for body framework, wool upholstery, plate glass, painstaking workmanship to precision standards, and extra equipment, such as gasoline gauge, clock, stop light, etc.—yet charge no more than competing cars.

2. Unit-Built Construction, because all parts are not only designed to constitute one harmonious unit, but are Unit-Built in Studebaker plants. Being built as a unit, every Studebaker functions as a unit. This results in years longer life, scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation, greater riding comfort, minimum repair costs.

3. “No-Yearly-Models,” because all phases of manufacturing are directly under Studebaker control. Studebaker cars are constantly kept up to date. Improvements are continually made—not saved up for spectacular announcements which make cars artificially obsolete. Resale values are thus stabilized.

For actual proof of these values we urge you to see the Standard Six Coach, outstanding example of One-Profit manufacture.

The Result from the Buyer's Standpoint—

World's Most Powerful Car of its Size and Weight

BASED upon the rating of the N.A.A.C.C. and the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Studebaker Standard Six is the most powerful car of its size and weight. The most popular car in the Standard Six line is the Coach—the lowest priced enclosed car ever offered by Studebaker.

Thirty-one makes have 5-passenger closed models which cost from $50 to $1,990 more than the Standard Six Coach, but have less rated horsepower.

It has much more room than the average coach. It seats five passengers in real comfort—with ample leg and head room. Seats are restfully deep and full width.

Northern ash and maple are used in the body construction—the same as in our Big Six models.

Long resilient springs made of special chrome Vanadium steel give greater buoyancy and protection from road shocks. The crankshaft is completely machined to minimize vibration.

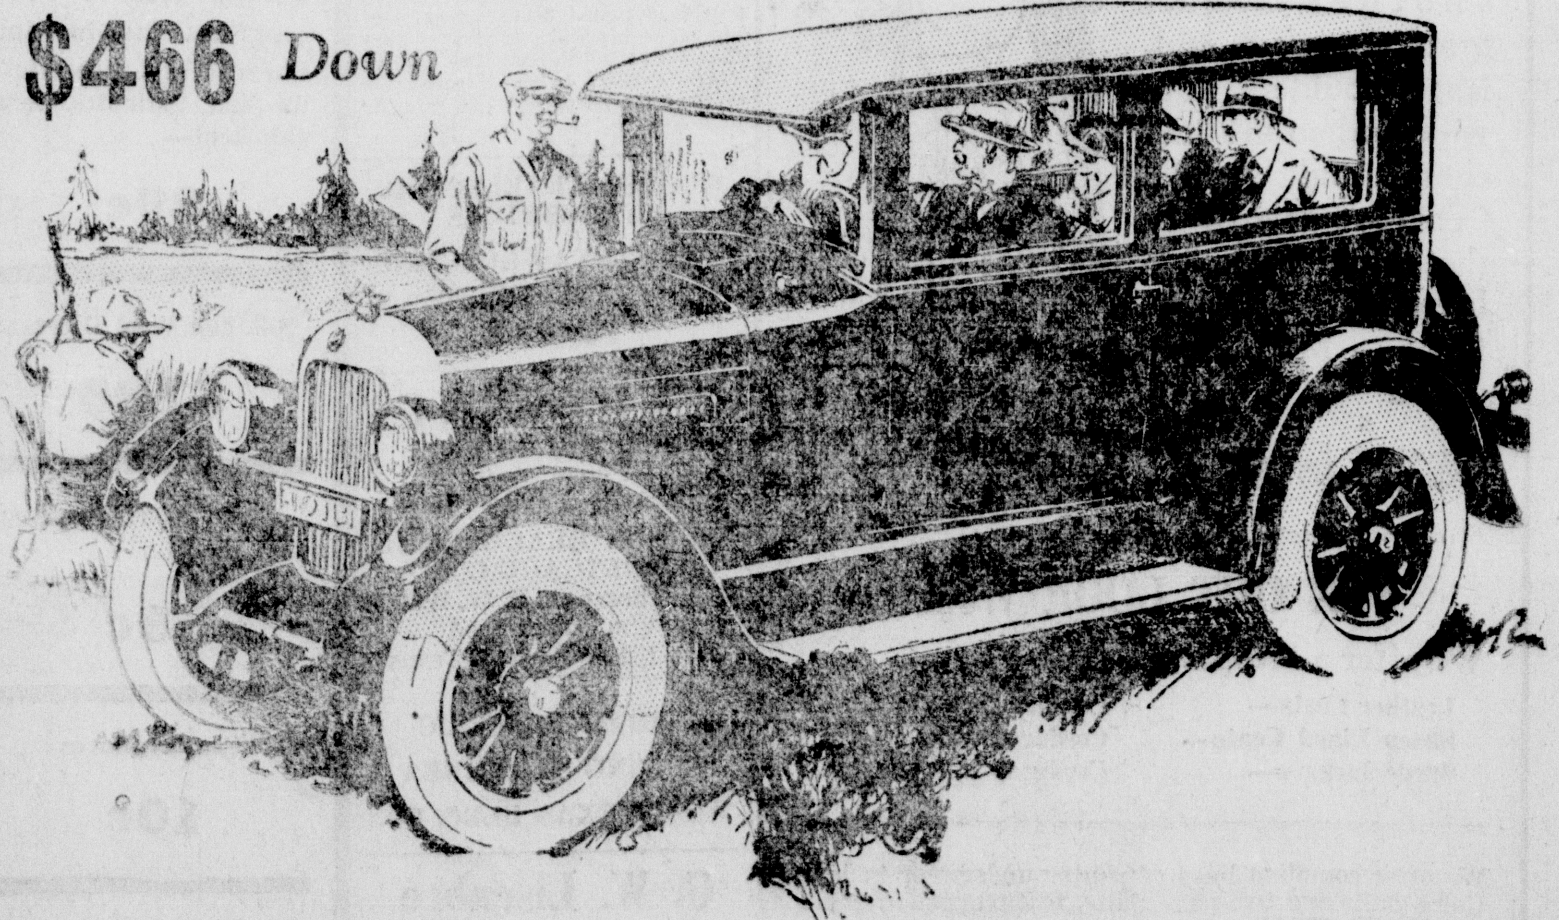

Equipment includes a gasoline gauge, an 8-day clock, automatic windshield cleaner, rear-view mirror, door pockets, ash receiver, cowl ventilator, stop light, dome light, incidental lock, safety light control and full-size balloon tires.

Come in and let us demonstrate this sturdy One-Profit car.

CHAPMAN LOSES LEGAL BATTLE

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS VERDICT OF LOWER COURT.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 6. —(AP)—Gerald Chapman sits in his cell in state prison at Wethersfield today knowing that presumably he has less than a month to live.

The notorious mail robber and convicted slayer has lost his fight for a new trial. The state supreme court of errors decided against him yesterday sustaining the verdict of the lower courts which found him guilty of the murder of Patrolman James Skelly of New Britain on October 12, 1924.

Chapman was sentenced to be hanged last June but was granted a reprieve by Governor Trumbull when an appeal was filed. He now must pay the death penalty on the morning of December 3, unless proceedings contemplated by his counsel succeed.

Chapman has lost his legal fight for life a few days after the killing by a detective in Muskegon, Mich., of his companion in crime, Dutch Anderson, really Ivan Dahl Von Teller, black sheep of a noble Danish family.

Chapman has not been informed of Anderson's death. New York, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Doubt that Gerald Chapman would have expressed today by Frederick J. Groel, who was the bandit's counsel at his trial for killing a New Britain, Conn., policeman.

Mr. Groel will make an effort in the federal court at Hartford to have Chapman returned to the Atlanta penitentiary to complete his 25 year sentence or a New York mail robbery.

MARKETS

By Associated Press Leased Wire

COTTON.

New York. New York, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady. December 20.50; January 19.75; March 19.95; May 20.00; July 19.48.

The cotton market opened easier in today's early trading. Reports of further heavy rains in the south failed to stimulate much buying, while Liverpool reacted after early advances, and the opening here was barely steady at an advance of one point on December, but generally 8 to 20 points lower.

A good deal of realizing or liquidation, and probably local selling developed in belief that the technical position of the market had eased since the covering movement started early in the week. January sold off to 19.61 before the end of the first hour, the general market showing no losses of about 19 to 23 points. The early decline was checked by renewed covering with the market becoming active and strong later in the morning on numerous crop complaints from the southwest and renewed demand for low grades. Prices made new high ground for the movement with January selling up to 20.17 and with the general list showing net advances of 20 to 34 points at midday.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady. December 19.70; January 19.80; March 19.63; May 19.62; July 19.43.

The cotton market had an irregular opening, first trades showing both gains and losses of 10 points up to 2 points down. Prices eased off on realizing and selling on the theory that the rains, said to be damaging, were too late to have any material bearing on the crops. December traded down to 19.55, January 19.58 and March to 19.43.

Later the market rallied about 7 to 8 points from the lows.

After ruling about steady and rather quiet for a part of the morning with prices a little above the lows, the market became very active and advanced sharply when Secretary Hester issued his pointer for mill takings for the week of 515,000 to 525,000 bales. This indicated takings so much larger than anticipated that early sellers hurried to rebuy what they had sold and shorts generally covered. December traded up 54 points above the lows. Toward noon prices eased off 17 to 18 points, from the highs on week-end realizing.

STOCKS-BONDS.

New York.

New York, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's market with trading showing a marked reduction in volume. DuPont crossed 250 for a gain of more than 2 points and was followed into new high ground by Schulte Stores, U. S. Rubber and American Smelting. General Electric advanced 3 1/2 but Hudson Motors showed an initial loss of over 2 points and Jordan fell back one. Oils were heavy.

Price movement became more confused as trading progressed with heavy profits taking and bearing apparent in the markets. Operation for the rise continued, however, in the coppers and a number of specialties in which favorable dividend developments are believed to be pending. Gambrel Bros. advanced 2 points, the former to a new peak at 72 in reflection of large current earnings. General Electric extended its gain of six points and DuPont to 3 1/2 before the end of the first half hour. Studebaker and Chrysler each fell back a point, but the latter showed good rallying power. New York Central, Ward Baking, International Combustion Engineering all advanced a point or so. Foreign exchange displayed a firmer tone, French francs rallying about 10 points to around 46 and Demand Sterling ruling steady around 48 1/2.

PRODUCE.

Chicago, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Poultry alive easy; fowls 14 to 15; springs

19 1/2; turkeys 30; roosters 14 1/2; ducks 21; geese 16 to 18c.

Eggs, unchanged. Potatoes, slow; Wisconsin-Minnesota sacked Round Whites 3.75 to 3.85; frozen 2.75 up; Idaho sacked Russets 4.25; Canadian mixed Red and White sacked 2.75 to 3.25.

GRAIN.

Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Although the wheat market displayed an upward tendency at the opening today, prices quickly underwent a setback. Reports that the harvest in Argentina had commenced under favorable conditions acted as a bearish influence and there was also word of beneficial rains in Australia. The opening, 1-4c off to 5-8c up, new style, December 1.51 1-8 to 1.51 3-8, and May 1.47 to 1.47 1-2 was followed by a slight additional upturn in some cases, and then a decline all around to below yesterday's finish.

Corn and oats were relatively firm. After opening 1-4c decline to 1-8c style, December 1.51 1-8 to 1.51 1-8, ed slight general gains.

Oats started unchanged to 1-8c higher, December 38 5-8 to 38 5-8 to 3-4 and later held near the opening range.

Better cash demand gave strength to the provision market.

Kansas City.

Kansas City, Nov. 6. —(AP)—Wheat No. 2 hard 1.52 to 1.55; No. 2, red, 1.67 to 1.68 1-2.

Abilene, Texas—Co-eds at Abilene Christian College will be given until Christmas to remodel their dresses so as to come three inches below the knee, according to a faculty edict announced Thursday.

Abilene—Indications this morning were that the Denton Teachers and Simmons University football teams would have a wet time of it this afternoon when they meet in a T. I. A. A. football game. A hard rain fell this morning with prospects for a continued downpour.

Denison—A. N. Alverson, 70, well known farmer of Enterprise community, died suddenly late yesterday while driving his automobile to Whitewright. He collapsed at the wheel.

Remedy Found to Make Shoe Soles Wear Out Evenly

Washington, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The bureau of standards has a remedy for the provoking propensity of the sole of one shoe to wear out faster than the other. After considerable research in the matter, it informs the man with a hole in one shoe that it would not have happened if the leather in his two soles has come from the same part of the hide.

Shoe manufacturers have been requested to take note of the new established fact that a sole from the belly hide gives the least wear and that from a section over the animal's kidney the longest, and to match up the sole leather in a pair of shoes. The tanning process, the bureau found, also has a lot to do with wearing qualities.

TAOS INDIAN APPEALS TO ARTISTS OF COLONY

Taos, New Mexico, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Of all the aborigines, the Taos Indian appeals to members of the famous Taos artists' colony as having the background best suited to the brush.

The picturesque setting in which the Indian is found and the Indian himself with his statuesque physique are the reasons why the eleven persons—ten men and one woman—who form the colony are here.

"The Indians of Old Taos hold to their customs and costumes more tenaciously and remarkably than any others," says Burt Phillips, dean and founder of the colony. "They live in a picturesque environment, which they fit to summer and winter. The lure of the native Spanish life around the plaza of Taos pueblo and adjoining villages is strong. An endless variety of subjects are here available—the mountains, canyons, and mesas, and, above all, the marvelous coloring, which seems to find its equal nowhere else in the country."

The Taos group is said among the first band of artist to receive a large order for pictures as an organization. Each member was commissioned to paint three murals for the Missouri state capitol building. As a result of the commission, the panels of the new Missouri capitol may be expected to reflect accurately the spirit and methods of the Taos Society of Artists.

One member of the society, John Sharp, now is confining himself entirely to the painting of Taos Indian subjects. The Taosans are a stalwart race, everyone a striking figure, given to standing on housetops in white robes at sunrise. They have furnished Sharp with an inspiration which now is occupying his entire attention.

The colony is the outgrowth of a friendship struck up between Phillips and E. L. Blumenschein in the Latin Quarter of Paris during the late nineties.

The pair pioneered into the Taos country shortly before 1900 after an arduous trek overland from Denver. Blumenschein later went to Arizona to paint Pima Indian subjects, but Phillips stayed on and it was his persevering efforts that finally led to the coming of the other ten artists.
